1. Acquire two or three images with your own camera and stitch them together into a single panoramic image. Use the MATLAB code provided on our website and modify or add to it accordingly. Try to blend the images to reduce the visibility of any seams. Try to explain how the provided code for SIFT works.